Enjoy your holidays in New South Wales!

Blue Mountain

With a blue horizon of eucalyptus trees that appear to stretch on forever, expect to be enchanted by the natural beauty of the Blue Mountains World Heritage Area. Set out on foot to explore some of the 140 kilometres (87 miles) of walking tracks, admire the native bushland, marvel at the impressive rock formations and explore underground caves on a holiday centred around the outdoors. Listen to Dreaming stories told by local Aboriginal guides and admire the work of resident artists before retiring to a luxury retreat surrounded by wilderness.

Taronga Western Plains Zoo

Located in Dubbo, in central west New South Wales. The Zoo is home to hundreds of animals from around the world and consists of free access Visitor Plaza and a 6km circuit that meanders through natural bushland and around large open style exhibits.

Mudgee

Loads of Australia's finest foodies are bragging about their Mudgee Region experience, so why not see for yourself what all the fuss is about. Go on, enjoy it like the locals do. Eat and treat yourself across the Mudgee Region.
